

INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

This Investment Management Agreement (the "Agreement"), made this _____ day of _____ 2022 (the "Effective Date"), is by and between _____ (the "Client") and Eagle Equity Holdings, LLC (the "Advisor", "Eagle Equity Holdings"). This Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions with regard to the investment management services Advisor will provide Client and the responsibilities of the parties.

Terms and Conditions

- 1. Advisor Authority and Responsibilities. Advisor shall provide the Client with investment management services via Client's brokerage account(s) established at the Client's designated custodian(s) (the "Custodian") as listed in Exhibit A of this Agreement (the "Account(s)"). Unless specifically directed otherwise in writing by the Client, Advisor shall have the power and authority to supervise and direct on a discretionary basis the investment of the Client's assets in the Account(s). The transactions in the Account(s) shall be made in accordance with the objectives of the Client as communicated to the Advisor.

Discretionary Authority – Client grants Advisor ongoing and continuous discretionary authority to execute its investment recommendations in accordance with the objectives of the Client as communicated to the Advisor in Exhibit B of this Agreement, without the Client's prior approval of each specific transaction. Under this authority, Client shall allow Advisor to purchase and sell securities and instruments in the Account(s), arrange for delivery and payment in connection with the foregoing, and act on behalf of the Client in all matters necessary or incidental to the handling of the investments in the Account(s). Client will execute instructions regarding Advisor's trading authority as required by each Custodian.

Advisor is acting as a fiduciary regarding its investment advisory services for Client and must put Client's interests above its own in managing the Account(s). Advisor agrees to provide these services to Client in a manner consistent with its fiduciary duty to Client and the provisions of the California Code of Regulations or any applicable state securities laws, rules and regulations. Before signing this Agreement and periodically during the parties' advisory relationship, Advisor will provide Client written disclosures of any conflicts of interest that might reasonably compromise Advisor's impartiality or independence.

- 2. Client Authority and Responsibilities. Client represents and warrants that he/she is authorized to enter into this Agreement and that the terms of this Agreement do not violate any obligations by which the Client is bound. Client agrees to deliver to Advisor all account forms and corporate resolutions or similar documentation evidencing the undersigned's authority to execute and deliver this Agreement. Client also agrees to deliver such organizational documents and other documents as Advisor shall reasonably require. Client further agrees to promptly deliver all amendments or supplements to the foregoing documents to ensure that the Advisor has current and accurate information regarding the Client's financial condition, needs and investment objectives. Client understands that Advisor, in the performance of its obligations and duties under this Agreement, is entitled to rely upon the accuracy of information furnished by the Client without further investigation.

Client agrees to notify Advisor before entering independently into any transactions in the Account(s) to allow the Advisor to manage the impact of the transaction on Advisor's trading in the Account(s). If Client fails to notify Advisor of any such transactions, Advisor may immediately discontinue services and cancel this Agreement and will not be liable for the performance of any securities purchased or sold in such transactions or any brokerage fees related to Client's failure to notify Advisor of such transactions.

Client agrees that Advisor will not be liable for any losses, costs or claims suffered or arising out of the Client's failure to provide Advisor with any documents required to be furnished hereunder. The Client warrants and represents that it owns all assets deposited in the Account(s) and that no restrictions on disposition exist as to any such assets.

Client agrees to pay any debit balance in the account promptly, on request of Advisor or the broker-dealer carrying the account.

- 3. Client's Understanding, Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Certain Risks. Client understands that investments made for the Account(s) are subject to general market, currency, economic, political and business risks, as well as the risk associated with investments in individual securities and agrees to accept those risks.

Client acknowledges that Advisor's past performance and advice regarding the Account(s) cannot guarantee future results. As with all market investments, Client investments can appreciate or depreciate and Advisor does not guarantee or warrant that the services it offers will result in a profit or perform in any particular way. Client also understands that the value and return of the Account(s) and the investments in the Account(s) will fluctuate over time. At any point in time, Client's portfolio may be worth more or less than the amount originally invested in the Account(s).

Client understands that Advisor is responsible only for the assets over which Client has provided Advisor discretionary authority and not for the diversification or prudent investment of any other assets of Client unless agreed upon in writing.

- 4. Fees and Expenses. The Client will pay the Advisor an Investment Management Fee based on a percentage of value of the client's assets under management, in accordance with Exhibit A and Exhibit B of this Agreement and in accordance with the procedures described in Advisor's Form ADV. Investment Management Fees are calculated on an annualized basis but will be billed and payable monthly in arrears. Performance fees are assessed at the end of each calendar month and are reduced pro rata for any period less than a full calendar month. Lower fees for comparable services may be available from other sources.

Client authorizes the broker-dealer and/or Custodian carrying Account(s) to charge the Account(s) the amount of Advisor's fee and to remit such fee to Advisor in accordance with Client's instructions. Clients are highly urged to review the account statements received from the Custodian to verify the accuracy of the Custodian's calculation of Advisor's fee.

All assets held in Client's account will be subject to this fee, including assets, such as cash, that are temporarily awaiting investment.

All brokerage commissions, custodial fees, stock transfer fees, transaction fees, charges imposed directly by mutual, index or exchange-traded funds, fees imposed by variable annuity providers, certain deferred sales charges, odd-lot differentials, transfer taxes, wire transfer and electronic fund fees and other similar charges incurred in connection with transactions for the Account(s) imposed by unaffiliated third parties will be paid out of the assets in the Account(s) and are in addition to the fees paid by Client to Advisor.

The following information describes how Eagle Equity Holdings is compensated for the advisory services we provide to our clients. Eagle Equity Holdings may charge higher or lower fees than are available from other firms for comparable services. Eagle Equity Holdings has the general discretion to waive all or a portion of our fees, but typically only exercises this discretion for our employees.

Investment Management Fees. In consideration for providing investment management services and contingent upon the mutually agreed portfolio strategy for the client, Eagle Equity Holdings receives compensation from our clients based on (i) a specified percentage of the assets we manage, and (ii) performance achieved for the client's account, as described below.

Exhibit A outlines the fees applicable to each of Eagle Equity Holding's available portfolio strategies. With respect to Eagle Equity Holdings' Dividend Strategy Portfolio, clients are charged an annual fee of up to 1.5% based on the client's assets under management ("AUM"), charged monthly in arrears. With respect to Eagle Equity Holdings' Opportunity Strategy Portfolio and Energy Strategy Portfolio, clients are charged an annual fee of up to 2.00% based on the client's AUM, charged monthly in arrears and, for certain qualified clients and if agreed upon in writing, an additional performance-based profit allocation of up to 15% based on the accumulated profit (excluding the impact of deposits and withdrawals) in the account at the time of calculation, subject to a loss carry-forward provision, also known as a "high-water mark," so that the performance-based fee is only billed when the client's account value at year-end, measured on a cumulative basis and net of any losses, exceeds the highest historic account value as of the end of the prior calendar year. These fees are subject to specific negotiations with each particular client.

Clients may elect to have our investment management fees deducted from their managed account(s) by the broker-dealer holding the account (the "qualified custodian"), pursuant to the client's written instructions to the qualified custodian. Eagle Equity Holdings does not withdraw fees directly from clients' accounts. Rather, fees are withdrawn directly from clients' accounts by the qualified custodian, Interactive Brokers. Specifically, Clients can elect to use the automatic advisor fee billing functionality offered by Interactive Brokers, through which the client authorizes Interactive Brokers in writing to automatically deduct a certain amount of fees from their account(s) and remit the fees to us. Clients specify the method by which our fees will be calculated (i.e., percent of AUM, percentage of P&L) as well as the timing of the deductions (i.e., monthly, quarterly). This request may be made in the client's account application to Interactive Brokers or at any time after that, and the client may change the billing instructions to Interactive Brokers at any time. Once this written request from the client is processed, Interactive Brokers will calculate the fees according to the method specified by the client. Our firm does not have the authority to request that Interactive Brokers withdraw any fees from the client's accounts or make any adjustments to clients' predetermined fee calculation method (other than to reduce the fee). Any advisory fees deducted from the client's account(s), the fee calculation methodology, and the period covered by the fee will be reflected on the invoice sent by Interactive Brokers each time fees are deducted from the client's account(s).

Additional Fees and Expenses. Clients will incur transaction charges and/or brokerage fees when purchasing or selling securities. These charges and fees are typically imposed by the broker-dealer or qualified custodian through which account transactions are executed. For more information on our brokerage practices, please refer to the "Brokerage Practices" section of this Brochure.

The fees that clients pay to our firm for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds and/or exchange traded funds (described in each fund's prospectus) to their shareholders. The fees charged directly by mutual funds and exchange traded funds will typically include a management fee and other fund expenses.

To fully understand the total costs associated with their investment portfolio, clients should review all the fees charged by mutual funds, exchange traded funds, our firm and others.

Termination. The Engagement Agreement with our clients may be terminated by either party at any time upon thirty (30) days written notice. Upon termination of our status as the client's investment adviser, Eagle Equity Holdings will not take any further action with respect to the client's account(s) unless specifically notified by the client in writing. Clients will be responsible for instructing their custodian and monitoring their account for the final disposition of assets.

Upon receipt of a proper notice of termination from the client, as described in the Engagement Agreement, any earned unpaid fees will be billed on a pro-rata basis based on the amount of work performed by us up to the point of termination.

Brokerage Commissions. Eagle Equity Holdings does not receive brokerage commissions from the sale of securities or other investment products. Our compensation for recommending securities and investment products is limited to the advisory fees described above.

Any material conflicts of interest between clients and Eagle Equity Holdings or our employees are disclosed in this Brochure. If at any time, additional material conflicts of interest develop, Eagle Equity Holdings will provide our clients with written notification of those material conflicts of interest or an updated Brochure.

Performance Based Fees. Eagle Equity Holdings may enter into performance-based fee arrangements with "qualified clients" as defined under California Code of Regulations Section 260.234 (clients having a net worth greater than $2,100,000 or for whom we manage at least $1,000,000).

- 5. Custody and Brokerage Transactions. Client has appointed Interactive Brokers as its Custodian to take and have possession of the assets (including funds and securities) in the Account(s) and to execute securities transactions. Client's relationship with the Custodian will be governed by a separate custody/brokerage account agreement between Client and the Custodian. Advisor shall not be liable to Client for any act, conduct or omission by the Custodian in its capacity as broker or custodian. Advisor shall not be responsible for ensuring Custodian's compliance with the terms of the brokerage account or payment of brokerage or Custodian charges and fees. Client shall be responsible for brokerage expenses that are billed directly by the Custodian. If the identity of Client's Custodian changes, Client will provide Advisor with prompt, written notice of the change. Client authorizes Advisor to receive from the Custodian a copy of any custody agreement in effect at any time with respect to the Account(s). In addition, Advisor and Client may choose to move some or all of the assets Advisor is managing for Client to another Custodian. The parties will record this agreement separately and do not need to amend this Agreement or form a new Agreement to effectuate this change.

Client authorizes Advisor to direct and place all orders for the execution of transactions with or through the Custodian, give instructions to the Custodian with respect to all investment decisions regarding the assets, and request information about the brokerage account from the Custodian under Client's independent, exclusive agreement with the Custodian. The Custodian is hereby authorized and directed to effect transactions and otherwise take such actions as Advisor shall direct in connection with the performance of Advisor's obligations related to the assets under this Agreement. Client will execute any instructions regarding Advisor's trading authority required by the Custodian.

The assets in the Account(s) will remain in Client's possession at all times and in the custody of the Custodian. At no time will Advisor accept, maintain possession or have custodial responsibility for Client's funds or securities.

Client funds and securities will be delivered between Client and the Custodian only.

Client acknowledges that the Custodian will provide duplicate confirmations and/or electronic access to Advisor for all trades in the Account(s). The Custodian will also promptly send Client copies of confirmations of transactions executed and an inventory of investments. Client will also receive regular account statements from the Custodian. Advisor does not assume responsibility for the accuracy of information furnished by the Custodian or any other third party. At least quarterly, the Custodian will provide Client and Advisor a written statement showing the value of the portfolio at the beginning and end of the period as well as advisory fees and all broker and custodian fees deducted from the account during the quarter.

- 6. Aggregation of Trades. Advisor may, in its discretion, combine transactions in the same securities for multiple clients at approximately the same time to obtain best execution, negotiate more favorable commission rates or fairly allocate differences in prices, commissions and other transaction costs among clients. When Advisor aggregates transactions, it will (or have the Custodian) average the executed prices of the aggregated transactions and allocate the transactions in proportion to the orders placed for each client on any given day. Accounts will be deemed to have purchased or sold their proportionate share of the instruments involved at the average priced obtained. Advisor will not receive any additional compensation or remuneration from aggregating multiple client orders.

If Client directed Advisor to use a specific broker-dealer to execute some or all transactions for the Client, Advisor is not obligated to seek better execution services or prices from other broker-dealers or aggregate Client transactions for execution through other broker-dealers with orders for other client accounts managed by Advisor (especially as they may not be using the same broker-dealer). As a result, Client may pay higher commissions or other transaction costs or greater spreads or receive less favorable net prices on these transactions than would otherwise be the case. Client understands that Advisor would be in a better position to negotiate brokerage commissions by aggregating Client's transactions with those of other clients if Client had not directed Advisor to use a specific broker.

- 7. Proxies. Advisor is not required to take any action or render any advice with respect to the voting of proxies regarding the issuers of securities held in the Account(s) except as may be directed by Client or otherwise required by law. Client is responsible for all decisions concerning the voting of proxies for securities held in the Account(s) and Advisor cannot give any advice or take any action with respect to the voting of these proxies. Also, Advisor shall have no responsibility to render legal advice or take any legal action on Client's behalf with respect to securities then or previously held in the Account(s) or the issuers thereof, that become the subject of legal proceedings, including bankruptcy proceedings or class actions. Client remains responsible for: (i) directing the manner in which proxies solicited by issuers of securities will be voted; and (ii) making all elections relating to mergers, acquisitions, tender offers, bankruptcy proceedings and other events pertaining to the securities in the Account(s).

Advisor will instruct the Custodian to forward copies of all proxies and shareholder communications relating to the assets in the Account(s), including information concerning legal proceedings or corporate actions involving securities in the Account(s) to Client and not Advisor. The Custodian, and not Advisor, is responsible for timely transmission of any proxy materials to Client.

- 8. ERISA. This section applies to the Client's Account if it is part of a pension or other employee benefit plan (a "Plan") governed by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"). If the Account is part of a Plan and we accept appointment to provide advisory services to such account, then the following applies:
- Advisor acknowledges that it is a "fiduciary" with respect to Client within the meaning of that term under ERISA (but only with respect to the provision of services described in this Agreement).
 - Advisor represents that it is registered as an investment adviser and duly qualified to manage Plan assets under applicable regulations.
 - In performing the services for Client, Advisor does not act as, nor have we agreed to assume the duties of, a trustee or the Plan Administrator, as defined in ERISA, and we have no discretion to interpret the Plan documents, to determine eligibility or participation under the Plan, or to take any action with respect to the management, administration or other aspect of the Plan.
 - Advisor agrees to obtain and maintain an ERISA bond (when not otherwise provided by the Plan sponsor) satisfying the requirements of Section 412 of ERISA and include the Firm and its members, agents and employees among those insured under the bond.
 - Client is authorized to appoint Advisor as an investment adviser for the account.
 - Client independently made the decision to enter into this Agreement and was not influenced by Advisor's status as a Plan service provider under any other Agreement.
 - Client represents that Advisor's investment strategy is appropriate for the account's assets.

- 9. Non-Exclusive Advisory Services. Client acknowledges that Advisor shall be free to render investment advice to others and Advisor does not make its investment management services available exclusively to Client. Client also understands that Advisor provides investment advisory services to multiple clients with different economic needs and agrees that Advisor may give advice and take action with respect to any of its other clients, which may differ from the advice given or the timing or action taken regarding the Account(s). Nothing in this Agreement shall impose on Advisor any obligation to Client to purchase, sell or recommend for purchase or sale any security that Advisor, its principals, affiliates, officers, members or employees may purchase or sell for their own accounts or for the account of any other client if in the sole and absolute discretion and reasonable opinion of Advisor it is not for any reason practical or desirable to acquire a position in such security for Client's account.

Client understands that conflicts of interest could exist between the Client and other clients including with respect to the allocation of investment opportunities, time, and resources between Client and other clients. Among other things, Advisor may be compensated differently by Client than by other clients. Advisor will regularly monitor the performance and investment portfolio of Client while also fulfilling its duty to manage other client accounts. Advisor may determine in its sole discretion to allocate certain investment opportunities to its other clients and not Client and vice versa. Advisor may also pursue and execute trades in the same or different securities for Client and other clients at different times and it may purchase or hold securities for Client at the same time as it sells such securities for other clients or sell securities for Client at the same time that it purchases or holds them for other clients. Although Advisor will use its best efforts to manage all client accounts consistently, factors including date of account opening, account additions, withdrawals, and different investment choices may lead to different investment performances for similarly situated clients. Client also acknowledges that transactions in a specific security may not be accomplished for all clients at the same time at the same price.

- 10. Legal, Tax and Accounting Advice. Client expressly understands and agrees that Advisor is not qualified to, and does not purport to provide, any legal, accounting, estate, actuary, or tax advice or to prepare any legal, accounting or tax documents. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as providing for such services. Client will rely on his or her tax attorney or accountant for tax advice or tax preparation.

Client agrees to review the brokerage statements, transaction confirmations and tax reporting forms provided by the Custodian for tax-related information. Client acknowledges that any sales, exchanges or dispositions of securities may have federal and/or state income tax consequences for Client and may result in Client having to pay additional income taxes.

- 11. Liability. Except as otherwise provided by law, Advisor or its officers, directors, employees or affiliates will not be liable to Client for any loss:
- a. Client may suffer as a result of Advisor's investment decision or other action taken or omitted in good faith and with the degree of care, skill, prudence and diligence that a prudent person acting in a similar fiduciary capacity would use in conducting an enterprise of a similar nature and with similar objectives under the circumstances;
 - b. Caused by following Client's written or oral instructions;
 - c. Caused by using inaccurate, outdated or incomplete information provided by Client and/or by Client's failure to promptly inform Advisor of changes in his or her financial and/or economic situation, investment objectives or any restrictions that may affect the management of the Account(s);
 - d. Caused by any action or omission by the Custodian, any broker-dealer to which Advisor directs transactions for Client or by any other third-party professionals or service providers;
 - e. Resulting from the failure or delay in performance of any obligation under this Agreement arising out of or caused by circumstances beyond Advisor's reasonable control, including, without limitation, acts of God, earthquakes, fires, floods, wars, terrorism, civil or military disturbances, sabotage, epidemics, riots, interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utility, computer software or hardware, transportation or communication service, accidents, labor disputes, acts of a civil or military authority, governmental actions or inability to obtain labor, material, equipment or transportation; or
 - f. Consisting of any indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages.

If the Account(s) contain only a portion of Client's total assets, Advisor shall only be responsible for those assets that Client designates as the subject of Advisor's investment management services under this Agreement. Client agrees that Advisor need not consider additional assets over which Client has not given Advisor discretionary trading authority.

Federal and state securities laws impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons who act in good faith, and this Agreement does not waive or limit Client's rights under those laws.

- 12. Trade Errors. Advisor will place all trades in the account electronically or by phone. Advisor assumes responsibility for any account losses for trading errors directly resulting from Advisor's failure to follow its trading procedures or from a lapse in Advisor's internal communications and will compensate Client for any corresponding losses.

Client acknowledges, however, that Advisor will not be responsible for account errors or losses that occur when Advisor has used its best efforts to execute trades in a timely and efficient manner. If a trade or some portion of a trade is not effected or an electronic error occurs through no fault of Advisor, resulting in an account not being traded at the time or price initially intended or at the same time or at the same price as other clients, the resulting loss will not be considered a trading error for which Advisor is responsible. Advisor will not be responsible for trades that are not properly executed by any clearing firm, custodian, mutual fund, or insurance company, when Advisor properly submitted the order.

13. Non-Waiver of Compliance. Nothing in this Agreement, including any condition, stipulation or provision, may be interpreted to waive or limit any obligation of Advisor to comply with the California Code of Regulations or applicable state securities laws, rules and regulations or any rights that Client may have under applicable federal and state securities laws, rules and regulations.

14. Termination and Cancellation. This Agreement will continue in effect until terminated by either party. Either party may terminate the Agreement at any time by giving thirty (30) days' signed written notice to the other party.

In the event that either party terminates this Agreement prior to the end of a calendar month, Advisor maintains the right to invoice the Client for fees due on a pro-rata basis.

Termination of this Agreement will not affect:

- a. The validity of any action previously taken by Advisor;
- b. Any liabilities or obligations of the parties for transactions initiated before termination; or
- c. Client's obligation to pay and Advisor's right to retain fees for services rendered under the Agreement.

If a party terminates this Agreement, Advisor is not obligated to recommend or take any action with regard to the securities, cash or other investments in the Account(s) or liquidate any assets in the Account(s) after the termination date. It shall be Client's exclusive responsibility to provide written instructions to Advisor regarding any assets in the Account(s) following termination.

15. Binding Effect, Successors and Assigns, Assignment and Ownership Changes. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective heirs, executors, successors, administrators, conservators, personal representatives, successors in interest, successors in trust, and permitted assignees.

Neither Client nor Advisor may assign this Agreement within the meaning of the California Code of Regulations or any applicable state securities law without the express prior written consent of the other party.

Client acknowledges that transactions that do not result in a change of actual control or management of Advisor shall not be considered an assignment pursuant to the applicable laws, rules and regulations of California Code of Regulations.

16. Death and Disability. Client's death, disability or incompetency will not automatically terminate or change the terms of this Agreement. But Client's executor, personal representative, guardian, attorney-in-fact or other authorized representative may terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to Advisor. Client recognizes that the Custodian may not permit any further account transactions until such time that any documentation required to establish authority regarding of Client's account is provided by Client's representative.

17. Arbitration Agreement. To the extent not inconsistent with applicable law, Client and Advisor agree to settle by arbitration any controversy between themselves and/or any officers, directors, employees, or agents of Advisor relating to this Agreement, the Account(s) or any account transactions, or in any way arising from Client's relationship with Advisor. The parties further agree that this arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") and shall be submitted to the AAA for resolution if the AAA accepts jurisdiction.

Client and Advisor understand and agree that by agreeing to arbitrate any disputes, they are agreeing to the following (to the extent allowed under applicable law):

- a. The parties are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, but this agreement to arbitrate does not constitute a waiver of the right to seek a judicial forum where such waiver would be void under federal securities laws or applicable state securities laws, rules and regulations;

- b. Arbitration awards are generally final and binding, and a party's ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited;
- c. The parties' ability to obtain pre-arbitration discovery including documents, witness statements, or other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings;
- d. The arbitrators do not generally have to explain the reason(s) for their award and any party's right to appeal or to seek modification of rulings by the arbitrators is strictly limited;
- e. The list from which the arbitrators are selected may include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry;
- f. The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration;
- g. The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed and any amendment thereto are incorporated into this Agreement;
- h. The arbitration will be pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act;
- i. Judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction; and
- j. This pre-dispute arbitration agreement shall survive the termination of the Agreement or Advisor's advisory services under this Agreement.

Client acknowledges and agrees that he has had a reasonable opportunity to review and consider this arbitration provision prior to executing this Agreement.

Any arbitration is voluntary in nature and the parties understand that by agreeing to arbitrate their disputes that they are not waiving any rights under the California Code of Regulations or any applicable federal or state securities laws, rules and regulations to pursue a remedy by other means.

18. Disclosure Concerning Advisor's Registration. Advisor represents that it is duly registered as an investment adviser pursuant to California Code of Regulations Section 260.231.3 or any applicable state securities laws, rules and regulations. 19. Client Acknowledgement of Receipt of Form ADV Brochure and Privacy Policy. Client further acknowledges that he or she has had a reasonable opportunity (at least 48 hours) to review the Form ADV Part 2 Brochures and to discuss their contents with Advisor or professionals of Client's choosing before executing this Agreement. This Agreement will not take effect until at least 48 hours after Client has received Advisor's Form ADV Part 2 Brochures and Advisor has accepted this Agreement. If Client has not received a copy of Advisor's Form ADV Brochure at least 48 hours prior to signing this Agreement, Client may cancel this Agreement in writing without penalty within five (5) business days from the date of execution. In such case, Client shall not be responsible for the payment of any fees under this Agreement, but shall be responsible for all expenses and losses associated with the transactions executed in the Account(s) prior to receipt of such notice by Advisor.

Client understands that Advisor will provide Client with an annual notice indicating the manner in which Client can obtain updated Form ADV Part 2 Brochures and will provide Client with a copy of the same upon request.
